EXPLORE THE GREAT OUTDOORS

THE BEST OF OLYMPIC NATIONAL PARK

LAKE CRESCENT

15 mins away

Lake Crescent is a glacially carved lake famous for its crystal clear waters. Visit Fairholme Beach for a cold swim or to rent a boat. Stop at various picnic spots around the lake for lunch.

Our Recommended Hikes

- Marymere Falls • Try this easy 1.7 miles hike through an old growth forest to Marymere Falls • Est. 1 hour
- Mount Storm King Trail • Challenge yourself in a difficult-rated 5.3 miles hike to dramatic mountain-top views • Est. 2.5 hours
- Spruce Railroad Trail • A iconic waterfront trail that follows the shoreline for 11.2 miles • Est. 5 hours or less
A great turnaround point is Devil's Punchbowl and bridge for a shorter hike (2.4 miles • Est. 1 hour).

HURRICANE RIDGE

52 mins away

Hurricane Ridge Visitor Center has breathtaking views of mountains as soon as you leave your car. It's a great jumping point for hiking, snowshoeing, skiing, and snowboarding.

Our Recommended Hike

- Hurricane Hill Trail • This moderate 3.4 miles trail offers sweeping 360° mountain views • Est. 2 hours

THE BEST OF OLYMPIC NATIONAL PARK

SOL DUC AREA

45 mins away

Visit Sol Duc Falls, the top waterfall in Olympic National Park here and enjoy mineral hot springs soak at the resort. The hot springs aren't rugged, wild or in nature —instead expect a large swimming pool that could be crowded.

Our Recommended Hike

- Sol Duc Falls · Enjoy a stroll to a iconic waterfall in Olympic National Park · Est. 40 mins

HOH RAINFOREST

1.5 hour away

The Hoh Rainforest, pronounced "Hoe" is one of four rainforests on the Olympic Peninsula. However, it is the only one that has been awarded the distinction of being a World Heritage Site and a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve.

Our Recommended Hike

- Hall of Mosses Trail · This easy 0.8 mile trail takes you through an old growth forest and features a grove of maple trees draped with abundant moss · Est. 30 mins

THE BEST OF OLYMPIC NATIONAL PARK

KALALOCH & RUBY BEACH 1.5 hours away

The olympic coast features striking sunset views and amazing sights of the pristine beaches with rugged sea stacks. Marine wildlife spotting is common and the tidepools are not to be missed during low tide.

Roadside Stops

- Tree of Life · Admire a massive Sitka spruce tree wedged between two blocks of the sandy bluff and is hanging mid-air! Drive to the Kalaloch Campground and start walking north along the beach to spot it.
- Ruby Beach · A popular 1 mile stroll with towering sea stacks and piles of driftwood logs · Est. 30 mins

Our Recommended Hikes

- Rialto Beach · A long 13.4 mile hike along the coast but we highly suggest hiking north to the “hole-in-the-wall” rock during low tide (about 2 miles) · Est. 1.5 to 7 hours
- Second Beach · Located 0.7 miles from La Push Road, this trail takes you to tidepools and seastacks against an iconic sunset · Est. 30 mins to 1.5 hours

OTHER SURROUNDING HIDDEN GEMS

SALT CREEK REC AREA

25 mins away

This area features short scenic wooded park trails and a breathtaking underwater park replete with sea urchins, anemones, sea cucumbers, and wolf eels —some can be seen during low tide.

NEAH BAY, SHI SHI BEACH & CAPE FLATTERY

2 to 3 hours away

Neah Bay is the Northwestern-most Point in the Contiguous United States! This area offers stunning wilderness beach hikes with hundreds of sea stacks, miles of undisturbed coastline, and views of wildlife from rocky cliffs.

- Cape Flattery Trail · 1.2 miles · Est. 1.5 to 2 hours
- Shi Shi Beach · 8.8 miles · Est. 3.5 hours

LAKE OZETTE

2 hours away

Lake Ozette is one of the largest natural lakes in Washington State, is home to a dozen different species of fish. Take a walk down one of the trails to the beach, or go out on the lake.
